

Timberland Bank Privacy Policy

Our Commitment to You

Protecting the privacy of your personal information is of paramount importance to us. We know how important it is to you that we safeguard and protect the privacy of your personal information. We want you to know that we are totally committed to protecting your privacy. The following describes our Privacy Policy. Please take a moment to review it and feel free to contact us with any questions. Thank you for the trust you have placed in us. We look forward to working very hard to continue to earn your trust.

Types of non-public personal information we collect about you

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources;

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

Do we disclose to any affiliated or non-affiliated third parties your non-public personal information?

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

We may disclose all of the information that we collect, as described above, to our holding company. We may also disclose nonpublic personal information about you to affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties as permitted by law.

Our policy relating to former customers

If you decide to close your account(s) or become an inactive customer, we will adhere to the privacy policies and practices as described in this notice.

We protect the confidentiality and security of your non-public personal information

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
